

The World Federation of Methodist and Uniting Church Women (WFMUCW) is a fellowship of recognized groups of Methodist, United and Uniting Church Women

WFMUCW was formerly known as World Federation of Methodist Women, but was changed in 1996 to officially recognize organized units of United and Uniting Church Women who members of the organization

WFMUCW is organized in Units from participating nations who work to affirm its purpose “To Know Christ and To Make Him Known”

The purpose of the organization is “to be a support group for women acting as a catalyst in their faith and actions; to promote the interests of women in all areas of life, in spiritual growth, equality, development and peace; to work towards the recognition of the equal status of women; to facilitate, encourage and actively promote leadership training for women; to be a voice for Methodist, United and Uniting Church women”

National Units are combined within nine geographical Areas. The Area and Unit Officers co-ordinate programs and provide a global network for sharing information on program activities

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED INC.

AGREED TO DIFFER, RESOLVED TO LOVE, UNITED TO SERVE

Church Women United (CWU) is a racially, culturally, theologically, inclusive Christian women’s movement celebrating unity in diversity and working for a world of peace and justice, specifically for women and children

Founded in 1941 as the United Council of Church Women, this organization has more than 1,200 local and state units in the United States and Puerto Rico

Women of the Church Women United movement have held a vision of Christian unity and prayerful action; they affirm that prayer and action are inseparable and that both have immeasurable influence in the world

CWU strives to provide its members with resources and information on a wide range of social justice issues, opportunities for worship and action, and women's organizations that work to ensure a better world for all
